

3rd Annual free festival
GLOBAL HEALTH & HUMANITARIAN SUMMIT
Speakers, Exhibitors, Workshops, Entertainment, Kids Activities

EMORY UNIVERSITY, ATLANTA, GA
School of Medicine & WHSCAB Buildings (Main Campus)
APRIL 13th - 15th, 2012

*Friday: 7pm - 10pm // Saturday: 8:30am - 10pm // Sunday: 10am - 9pm

Visit www.imvc.org for details

What is the event all about?

- A free festival and gathering of speakers, exhibitors, & performers in all areas of humanitarian aid & peace-building
- Over 300 speakers, exhibitors, and performers dedicated to humanitarian causes
- Participants from across the United States and around the world
- An opportunity to learn, share, and help create innovative approaches for improving the well-being (health, prosperity, sustainability, peace, etc) of the human race

What is the goal of the event?

- to create a synergy and contagious positive spirit of celebrating, connecting, & learning about the joys of helping others
- to inspire a common goal for all people...ensuring that all of us have a healthy, peaceful dash of life with adequate food, water, shelter, & access to health care
- to inspire more people to become humanitarians, connect folks doing humanitarian work so they can be more effective, and give a voice to humanitarians
- to inspire a humanitarian movement encouraging similar events take place each year around the world at universities, schools, & other institutions

